When successful family law attorney Charlene Dugan announces that she plans to get remarried, chaos ensues as her daughter decides to reinvent herself, her fiancé spends all his time with the wedding consultant, and her mind is preoccupied with thoughts of her ex-husband.

Enjoy again the humor and warmth of this fan-favorite novel by #1 New York Times bestselling author Robyn Carr. Charlene Dugan has been happily divorced for twenty-five years. But now she's decided to tie the knot again, and almost immediately her life begins unraveling. Her daughter Stephanie's own relationship is disintegrating, and she might be just a teeny bit jealous of her mom. Somehow Charlene seems to be spending more time with her ex-husband than with her new fiancé. The wedding party has officially spun out of control—they're calling for rain and the bride has cold feet. This isn't exactly what Charlene had in mind. But maybe it's not too late to finally decide on who and what she really wants. Originally published in 2001 "A delightfully funny novel."—Midwest Book Reviews

Welcome back to Thunder Point! Rediscover the fan-favorite small town where newcomers are welcome and friends become family, only from Robyn Carr, the #1 New York Times bestselling author of the Virgin River series. Since moving to Thunder Point, Ginger Dysart is finally getting past her grief. Her job at the flower shop is peaceful and fulfilling, and she's excited to be assisting with the Lacoumette wedding. In spite of her lasting heartache, Ginger is swept up in the pleasure of the occasion. But the beauty of the Lacoumette farm and the joy of the gregarious family are ruined by an unfortunate, embarrassing encounter with the bride's brother, Matt. When Matt shows up at the flower shop determined to make amends, what started out as a humiliating first meeting blossoms into something much deeper than either of them expected. Everyone around them worries that Ginger will end up with a broken heart yet again. But if Ginger has the courage to embrace the future, and if Matt can finally learn to let go of the past, there may still be hope for a happy ending. First published in 2015.

Treat yourself this Christmas by staying in with this holiday read! #1 New York Times bestselling author Robyn Carr delivers an emotional and triumphant novel about the fierce power of a mother's love. A summer rental, a new beginning... Hannah Russell's carefully crafted plans for her life have been upended without warning. When her best friend died suddenly, Hannah became guardian to a five-year-old named Noah. With no experience at motherhood, she's terrified she's not up to the challenge. She and Noah need time to get to know each other, so she decides to rent a country house with stunning views on a lake in rural Colorado. When they arrive at the house, they are greeted by the owner, a handsome man who promises to stay out of their way. But his clumsy Great Dane, Romeo, has other ideas and Noah immediately bonds with the lovable dog. As Hannah learns to become a mother, Owen Abrams, who is recovering from his own grief, can't help but be drawn out of his solitude by his guests. But life throws more challenges at this unlikely trio and they are tested in ways they never thought possible. All three will discover their strengths and, despite their differences, they will fight to become a family. And the people of Sullivan's Crossing will rally around them to offer all of the support they need.

In Sullivan ' s Crossing, #1 New York Times bestselling author Robyn Carr has created a place where good people, powerful emotions, great humor and a healthy dose of common sense are the key ingredients to a happy life. Sullivan ' s Crossing brings out the best in people. It ' s a place you ' ll want to visit again and again. Dr. Leigh Culver loves practicing medicine in Timberlake, Colorado. It is a much-needed change of pace from her stressful life in Chicago. The only drawback is she misses her aunt Helen, the woman who raised her. But it ' s time that Leigh has her independence, and she hopes the beauty of the Colorado wilderness will entice her aunt to visit often. Helen Culver is an independent woman who lovingly raised her sister ' s orphaned child. Now, with Leigh grown, it ' s time for her to live life for herself. The retired teacher has become a successful mystery writer who loves to travel and intends to never experience winter again. When Helen visits Leigh, she is surprised to find her niece still needs her, especially when it comes to sorting out her love life. But the biggest surprise comes when Leigh takes Helen out to Sullivan ' s Crossing and Helen finds herself falling for the place and one special person. Helen and Leigh will each have to decide if they can open themselves up to love neither expected to find and seize the opportunity to live their best lives.

#1 New York Times bestselling author Robyn Carr returns to the beloved town of Virgin River with a brand-new story about fresh starts and new friends. Now a Netflix Original Series! Kaylee Sloan ' s home in Southern California is full of wonderful memories of the woman who raised her. But the memories are prolonging her grief over her mother ' s recent death. A successful author, Kaylee hoped she could pour herself into her work. Instead she has terrible writer ' s block and a looming deadline. Determined to escape distractions and avoid the holiday season, Kaylee borrows a cabin in Virgin River. She knows the isolation will help her writing, and as she drives north through the mountains and the majestic redwoods, she immediately feels inspired. Until she arrives at a building that has just gone up in flames. Devastated, she heads to Jack ' s Bar to plan her next steps. The local watering hole is the heart of the town, and once she crosses the threshold, she ' s surprised to be embraced by people who are more than willing to help a friend—or a stranger—in need. Kaylee ' s world is expanding in ways she never dreamed possible. And when she rescues a kitten followed by a dog with a litter of puppies, she finds her heart opening up to the animals who need her. And then there ' s the dog trainer who knows exactly how to help her. As the holidays approach, Kaylee ' s dread turns to wonder. Because there ' s no better place to spend Christmas than Virgin River.
